A Biblical Theology of Missions | Resourcing The Church

Mission in the Bible finds its raison d'être in the failure of God's first son (Adam) in the covenant of works to establish worldwide worship. Adam was meant to win righteousness, life, and justification for the human race and lead us to worship God in spirit and truth; instead he brought sin, death, and condemnation on the human race and led us into idolatrous worship of created things instead of our Creator.

The Bible is "a record of theology in mission - God in action in behalf of the salvation of mankind." [10] His mission to bring all things into accord with His eternal purpose culminates in the coming kingdom of God (cf. 1 Cor 15:24-28; Eph 3:11; Rev 11:15; 12:10; 20:1-6). The doctrine of God, Man, Sin, Creation, Eschatology, and all other biblically revealed topics affix to the mission of God.

The Theology of Missions - What is God's Plan for Mankind?

Theology of mission is a multi- and inter-disciplinary enterprise. It is a relatively new discipline, with its first text appearing in 1961, in a collection of essays edited by Gerald Anderson, entitled, The Theology of Christian Mission (Anderson: 1961). In that volume the tri-partite nature of theology of mission was clearly represented.
